

REFUGEES

By Alex and Amaanah

The difference between refugees and migrants

A Refugee is a person that has to flee because of war or persecution. There is a massive difference between Refugees and Migrants that some people don't understand. Migrants are people that move for a job or other needs.

Refugee Journeys

Refugees have to travel a long way. This could mean having to travel in life-threatening conditions.

Refugees and the UK

People sometimes don't accept Refugees. This could be because small countries might not have space, or simply just greed for power.

In the future/ Did you know

Did you know 1% of Refugees resettle!

Refugees and migrants

Author: Pierre and Alfred

The difference between refugees and migrants?

Refugees have no choice and migrants have a choice to leave their country. Migrants leave because of birth, work and life style. Refugees have to go through lots of hard times, but migrants would usually take a plane.

Refugee Journeys

Refugees have to travel a very long way!

To reach safety and new life style.

It is very hard because of drowning, sharks and getting thrown off a bad boat. Refugees have died before.

Refugees and the UK

When you reach England you have to go through a long paper process. Which takes a very long time and you might not even make it. The very bad thing is that some people get killed when they try and escape. People who do make it only 4 percent get a normal life after they escape.

In the future/ did you know

I predict that the refugee crisis will get better than it was and refugees will be allowed in from every country. Also that no one will be killed from escaping.

REFUGEES

AUTHOR: Rachel and Oscar

WHO ARE REFUGEES?

Refugees are different to migrants because a migrant travels to a different country for a new job or visiting family elsewhere. Refugees, however, have to flee because of war and environmental problems.

REFUGEE JOURNEYS

Refugees constantly move across water and land and sleep in tents. Did you know that less than 1% of all refugees are able to resettle?

ARRIVING

Refugees should be treated fairly. We should provide them with good education, shelter and food.

FUTURE THINGS

In the future, everybody should help refugees. Everybody should respect refugees.

REFUGEE

Author: Cosmo

The Difference between refugees and migrants

Refugees are forced to move out because of war.

Migrants choose to move out because of work, study or other reasons.

Refugees in the UK

They give us new things to try for example new food and new languages to try to speak and more

Refugee Journeys

Refugees go through a lot of stuff they go over mountains and rivers, deserts.

In the future/ did you know

Did you know approximately one hundred thousand refugees/asylum seekers come into the UK because of WAR and bombs. Some even lose their relatives.

REFUGEES

Author: Edwin and Amara

The difference between refugees and migrants?

Refugees have to run away from home because of disaster, bombs, guns and many more.

Refugees run away from gunfire & other dangerous stuff!!!!

- If they don't make it out they get tracked down and they get hurt physically.

DID YOU KNOW?!?!?

It is illegal to hold back Refugees.

Refugees and the UK

Some people keep saying that Refugees keep coming to the UK which is not true maybe They say it on the news, but they are not telling the truth.

Facts about refugees

Refugees go through a lot of heart breaking dangerous stuff. Some refugees have amazing stories to tell which none of us would ever experience. It would be shocking for a normal person.

In the future/did you know

In the future we should respect refugees no matter the cost. This is critical for refugees. Did you know that 30 refugees flee their home every minute that is one refugee every 2 seconds THAT'S CRAZY!

Refugees

Author: Elizabeth and Yusuf.

Refugees and Migrants

Refugees have to leave their country because of war. Migrants choose to leave their country to work.

Their Journey

Refugees have to walk over mountains and sleep in crowded tents and have no food. Did you know only 1 percent of refugee resettle somewhere new.

Refugees in the UK

The majority of refugees go to Scotland.

Did you know...

Half of all refugees are under the age of 18.

REFUGEES JOURNEY

Author: Eri and Atherva

The difference between refugees and migrants?

Refugees have no choice but migrants do. Refugees are forced to leave their country but migrants have a choice, they go for having not much food, for a good job, to live with family and for education. Refugees go because of war to seek safety.

Refugee Journeys

Refugees go through death and war not many survive. They go over hills and rivers as day becomes night, In a tiny boat cramped with thousands of people.

Refugees and the UK

Refugees are normal people so they are allowed in any country to live in and to be safe. Refugees have a long journey they cannot just take an airplane. Refugees don't go straight to the UK they have to go through other countries. Before they are refugees they are asylum seekers.

REFUGEES
WELCOME

The word 'WELCOME' is written in large, bold, black capital letters. The letter 'O' is replaced by a small, realistic image of the Earth, showing blue oceans and green continents.

In the future/ did you know

In the future there will be more refugees than people who are born there. Did you know that each minute 30 refugees are forced to leave their country from war and start an endless journey.

REFUGEES

Author: Arya and Ethan

Why refugees and migrants are not the same

Refugees and migrants are different in many ways. Here are some of them: migrants choose to leave, while refugees must flee from grave danger. Refugees are escaping from war, persecution and death.

How far refugees travel

Refugees travel thousands of miles to get to safety.

Many refugees do not make it to where they can feel safe and loved. Refugees sometimes have to leave their loved ones behind on their dangerous journey to safety.

What do Refugees and the UK have in common?

Some (not all) refugees come to the UK. Also, most of the refugees go to Glasgow, Scotland, UK

Did you know?

Did you know that approximately 1% of all refugees resettle? Plus, refugees need a lot of support because they usually don't bring much from their old homes because they are in such a rush to escape.

REFUGEES

Author: Lana and Aadi

The difference between refugees and migrants?

Refugees don't have a choice, they have to leave their home because of things that have happened. That is often war, persecution and natural disasters. But migrants have a choice. They often leave to get a better job, to learn more things about that country, or to earn more money.

Refugee Journeys

Refugees take long journeys and they can often be dangerous and deadly. Sometimes they won't be let into the country so they won't seek safety. They often lose friends, family, pets and other living relatives. They have to cross many borders. Only a small amount of refugees is ever able to resettle in the new country. Refugees usually travel to countries that are close to their country. Sometimes the country that they go to can be in war too.

Refugees and the UK

Some refugees travel to England like Yemen and Ethiopia because they can't travel to each other, since they are next to each other and both of them are in war. It is amazing that we give them a place to live, food and water for them to survive because

In the future/Did you know

Did you know that every minute 30 refugees have to flee their home and move to a new country, also 4% of all refugees ever resettle in their new country.

REFUGEE

Authors: Iris and Millie

The difference between refugees and migrant?

The difference between refugees and a migrant is a

Refugee is forced to leave their home because of war or food shortages.

A migrant is someone who chooses to leave their home because of work or just wanting to move to a different country.

Refugee Journeys

First, refugees go through long journeys with no food and water for many days.

Then, refugees have to take boats over endless rivers, ponds and seas.

Last but not least, refugees have to have all their personal information in order to be accepted somewhere.

Refugees and the UK

Not many people in the UK like to welcome refugees to their house. We need to change that

Refugees are just any ordinary people, therefore we should treat them like that .

In the future/ did you know

In the future, I think there will be less refugees so we have to do our best to help them.

REFUGEES

Author: Poppy and Clara

The difference between refugees and migrants?

The difference between refugees and migrants is that refugees have no choice but to run away from their country because of war and persecution but migrants choose to move away because they want to and they can stay there for as long as they want.

Refugee Journeys

Refugee journeys are like going on high, pointy mountains and across deadly seas with loads of scary animals hiding underneath their boat and up grassy hills.

Refugees and the UK

If we don't help this problem then we will be in trouble because all the countries will become full of war and there will be hardly any safe countries to escape to.

In the future/ Did you know?

Did you know that half the world's refugees are children? And if we don't change our ways then there will be even more!

Refugee

Author: Hanna and Allegra

The difference between refugees and migrants?

Refugees are people that had to flee their country because of war/starvation or persecution but migrants are people that leave their country for better education/work or to go to friends or family.

Refugee Journeys

A Refugee's journey is filled with pain. A journey so bad nobody and I mean nobody wants to face it. I know right now you think that it's not that bad but if you try to face it you will know how much of a nightmare it is. It is a terrifying experience that's why we need to make Refugees feel comfortable.

Refugees and the UK

When a refugee arrives in the UK they become Asylum seekers. Before they can live in the UK they have to fill out many files and paperwork they also have to go through intense interviews. After a long time of hard work, they can finally live in peace.

In the future/ Did you know

I think that in the future people will help Refugees more and that more Refugees will be happy. Did you know that some Refugees die on their journey?

REFUGEE

Author: Ryley and Raphael

The difference between refugees and migrants?

The difference between refugees and migrants is that refugees are forced to leave their country migrants choose to. Refugee fly from wars.

Refugee Journeys

A refugees journey could be quite tragic because they have to leave their home to seek safety from things like natural disasters persecution food shortages and death even death.

Refugees and the UK

Refugees do not just come to the UK they end up all around the globe. We are meant to help refugees because refugees main target is not Great Britain their main target is their nearest country.

The future/ Did you know

If this keeps happening, there are going to be more than 1 billion refugees. Basically the amount of refugees keeps growing.

REFUGEE

Authors: Abhi and Will

Difference between refugees and migrants?

Refugees HAVE to flee their home instantly to seek safety this could be because of war, persecution or natural disaster. On the other hand, migrants CHOOSE to leave their home because of a new job or maybe even because they want to.

Refugee Journeys

Refugees start as normal people with happy lives then more suddenly than a sneeze they become homeless. They travel hundreds of miles in seek of safety. On the way they may lose loved ones. However, hope is not all lost, some people survive and we should let them in because how would you feel if you lost your parents or loved ones?

Refugees and the UK

Ever since the dawn of time, humans have had one desire to seek a safe place to settle. This crisis is not only happening in the UK but all over the world. We are all different but we are ALL human because did you know that if every non-English person was rejected we would not have things like Christmas or Halloween or delicious food like tacos or pizza!

In the future/ did you know?

In the future we should accept everyone maybe not just in the future maybe even NOW so if a new refugee moves into your neighbourhood treat them like a friend and always remember they make us who we are.

Did you know, every minute 30 people flee their home to seek safety?