

Who will your new characters be?

What animal will you choose to be your main character? You need to replace the little pigs for someone different.

'The Three _____?'

Children, your challenge today is to choose an animal that you would like to replace the little pigs. Can you think of an animal that is hunted by a wolf or fox? We have found some examples for you and put their pictures below. On the next page you will need to draw your animal in detail, including all its main features e.g the rabbit must have long point ears and whiskers.

Can you name the title of your story to include the new characters e.g.

'The Three Bouncing Bunny's' or 'The Three dancing deer'

Remember: The extra spicy challenge is to create a title using alliteration! Can the adjective before your animal start with the same letter?

Your name: _____

Draw a picture of your character:

Character name:

Circle the words that describe this character:

happy friendly clever
 caring angry beautiful
 rude handsome evil
 helpful smart moody
 honest ugly kind
 wicked nasty scary
 cross shy mean pretty horrible sly polite
 grumpy calm furious
 unkind fierce bold

Write some sentences about the character:

Can you draw your new animal character and select the adjectives that best describe it.

