

Release your imagination...

Join us in today's English lesson and let your imagination run free. Today we will think about magic and the impossible! After playing the game on YouTube with Ms Bates, you can play the game at home. You will be transforming everyday household objects into something obscure and exciting! Look at the pictures below and transform the everyday object into something extraordinary and complete the sentence

“This is not a shower it is a _____”

“This is not a bed it is a _____”

“This is not a kettle it is a _____”

“This is not a spoon it is a _____”

“This is not a _____ it is a _____”
