

Recording temperatures and solving word problems on Planet Pandora WB: 6th July 2020

The temperature inside the rocket is 15°C and outside is -2°C . What is the difference in temperature?

The temperature in the night is 4°C . The temperature in the daytime is 21° lower. What is the temperature?

The astronauts want to eat ice-cream. It must be served at -11°C but the temperature inside the rocket is 21°C . What is the difference in temperature between the serving temperature and the rocket temperature?

